Where is Forever21, Inc. on the journey to sustainable cotton?

Company performance analysis

OVERALL

The company scores 2 out of 100 points in this ranking - showing no significant performance on more sustainable cotton, and has therefore not yet started.

POLICY

The company has no public policy or stated intent to achieve more sustainable cotton or a public time-bound target for more sustainable cotton sourcing. The company has an environmental policy, but is not referring to biodiversity issues in cotton cultivation. The company has implemented a zero waste project to collect post-consumer textiles for reuse purposes. Forever21 signed the Company Pledge Against Forced Labour in the Uzbek Cotton Sector. The company does not have any other policies in place to address environmental issues in cotton cultivation such as the elimination of HPPs or reducing water use.

UPTAKE

The company does not publish any information about volumes of more sustainable cotton sourced, either in percentage or absolute terms.

TRACEABILITY

The company does not publish information on the absolute volume and origin of the cotton used in its products. The company does not provide information on its suppliers (finished product, fabric manufacturers, yarn spinners).
